NASTY STUFF – ESSENTIAL COVERAGES REMOVED BY ENDORSEMENT

In today's price competitive market and litigious society, carriers are using ISO and proprietary endorsements to carve out integral parts of the CGL policy, often leaving your clients with little or no coverage for exposures normally provided. Over the past five years, Mr. Lyon has collected a large number of "nasty" endorsements that your clients would not want on their policy(ies) if they had a choice. In this class we will identify them, determine whether they can be removed, or fully disclose their impact on the applicable coverage forms. Removing one word from the CGL policy can ruin coverage for your valuable clients.
